

The Mayfair
Townhouse

Restaurant Recommendations

---

The Concierge Team love to go above and beyond for our guests, ensuring a stay with us is elevated to an unforgettable experience, both in and out of The Townhouse.

Please note that these restaurants must be booked in advance, so please contact our Concierge Team to make a reservation on your behalf.

---

New

---

Colonel Saab

22 minute walk from The Mayfair Townhouse

Located in the vibrant Trafalgar Square and Holburn, Colonel Saab is a group of distinguished Indian restaurants from Roop Partap Choudhary. Offering an exquisite Indian fine dining experience that captures the essence of both heritage and innovation, these restaurants are Crafted by Roop as a “love letter” to his family and as a tribute to India, each location reflects a unique facet of these journeys. With old-style jazz music, museum-worthy artwork, and a modern interpretation of the flavours and textures of India, Colonel Saab at both Holborn and Trafalgar Square offers a contemporary perspective with an old soul. They present a nostalgic tapestry of memories, aromas, and tastes that transcend the ordinary, bringing the heart of India to the centre of London.

Address: 55 Curzon Street, Mayfair, London W1J 8PG

Telephone: 020 3989 7777

Click here for their menu

Mister Nice

9 minute walk from The Mayfair Townhouse

Mister Nice is an elegant French restaurant bringing the Parisian touch to the heart of Mayfair, serving simple and compelling dishes made from seasonal ingredients. Mister Nice is a home away from home providing an exclusive, undeniably tempting atmosphere.

Address: 14-16 Davies St, London W1K 3DR

Telephone: 020 3824 9000

Click here for their menu

Niju

5 minute walk from The Mayfair Townhouse

Culinary Director, Chef Endo Kazutoshi, a third-generation sushi master, has curated the culinary programme and menu incorporating his unmatched knowledge, skillset, and wealth of experience of Japanese cooking to two individual industry experts.

Address: 20 Berkeley St, London W1J 8EE

Telephone: 020 3327 3691

Click here for their menu

Mayfair

Hide

A restaurant and bar by Hedonism Wines and Ollie Dabbous. Set over three floors, flooded with natural daylight and enjoying views across Green Park, Hide offers you the very best food and drink in a refined but relaxed setting. Open every day from early until late, watch the sun rise and set over Piccadilly as you enjoy breakfast, lunch, afternoon tea or dinner, accompanied by Hedonism Wines' incomparable wine list. Any bottle available in the Mayfair store may be reserved and delivered to the restaurant for you to enjoy alongside your meal.

Address: 85 Piccadilly, Mayfair, London W1J 7NB

Telephone: 020 3146 8666

Click here for their menu

MNKY HSE

MNKY HSE is located behind a discreet entrance at No 10 Dover Street, revealing an intimate bar and lounge area on the ground floor, with the main bar and restaurant lurking beneath. Latin American cuisine is re-imagined by Chef Pablo Peñalosa Nájera in a bold space that transforms as the night evolves.

Address: 10 Dover Street, London W1S 4LD

Telephone: 020 3870 4880

Click here for their menu

Jamavar Restaurant

Indian street food gets an upscale makeover at this glossy venue with botanical-themed cocktails. Jamavar sticks to their traditional approach to cooking, displaying a variety of dishes that reflect the diversity of Indian cuisine. Behind each dish on the menu is a team of highly experienced chefs, each a culinary master of their distinctive regional flavours.

Address: Mount Street, Mayfair, London W1K 3NF

Telephone: 020 7499 1800

Click here for their menu

Park Chinois

With Park Chinois, Alan Yau returns to high-end Chinese for the first time since launching Hakkasan and Yauatcha in the early noughties. Diners enter on a red carpet via heavy wooden doors into a reception room with log fire, before being ushered into a long, low-ceilinged dining room. Dapper bartenders in white DJs dispense beautifully crafted cocktails at a malachite-topped bar; behind, the dining area stretches away

Address: 17 Berkeley Street, W1S 4NF

Telephone: 020 3327 8888

Click here for their menu

Arlington

Jeremy King and Chris Corbin opened Le Caprice at 20 Arlington Street on 1 September 1981. After over forty years and an odyssey of opening London's restaurants including The Ivy, J Sheekey, The Wolseley, The Delaunay, Brasserie Zédel, Colbert and Fischer's, Jeremy returns to his roots to open Arlington.

Address: 20 Arlington Street, London SW1A 1RJ

Telephone: 020 3856 1000

Click here for their menu

Gaia

Following several successful global sites in hubs like Dubai and Monte Carlo, Gaia has arrived in Mayfair occupying a space in the One Berkeley Square development. Specialising in fine dining Greek cuisine, this concept restaurant was created by renowned restaurateur Evgeny Kuzin, who has expressed 'it's imperative that Gaia has a home in London', and nowhere is better suited for it than swanky Mayfair.

Address: Mayfair, London, W1S 4NY

Telephone: 020 3961 0000

Click here for their menu

The Cocochine

Cocochine is the love child of Sri Lankan-born Chef Larry Jayasekara and Hamiltons Gallery owner Tim Jefferies. And love child it is. It is apparent to us that each detail in this four-story townhouse was painstakingly considered; bespoke lighting to minimise shadows, a hand-painted mosaic inspired by Guido Mocafico and leather handrails that match that of the steak knives.

Address: 10 Dover Street, London W1S 4LD

Telephone: 020 3835 3957

Click here for their menu

Langan's Brasserie

Langan's is an iconic institution with an unparalleled reputation for sophisticated cuisine, stellar service and lavish parties. Step into a glittering world of British elegance respecting French tradition, open for early breakfasts, late night soirées and everything in between. Langan's reputation for its parties, events and private dining has been unparalleled for decades, offering its signature continental elegance and fanciful British flair to those wishing for something a little more tailored and discreet.

Address: Stratton Street, Mayfair, London, W1J 8LB

Telephone: 020 7491 8822

Click here for their menu

Sexy Fish

Sexy Fish is an Asian restaurant and bar located on the corner of Berkeley Square, serving Japanese-inspired sushi, sashimi, seafood, fish, and meat cooked on a Robata grill. Designed by Martin Brudnizki Design Studio and decorated with art by Damien Hirst and Frank Gehry, the look and feel is mid-century glamour and opulence. The Coral Room, a private dining space, houses two of the largest live coral reef tanks in the world. The bar meanwhile holds the world's biggest Japanese whisky collection, as well as offering a drinks menu featuring both classic and inventive cocktails.

Address: Berkeley Square House, Berkeley Square, W1

Telephone: 020 3764 2000

Click here for their menu

Ristorante Frescobaldi London

This is the first restaurant in the UK from the esteemed Frescobaldi family of Tuscany. There's probably no other family in Italy that knows Tuscan cuisine like the Frescobaldi family, hence the menu at this London restaurant features the region's very best food. As well as fine Tuscan wines, of course

Address: 15 New Burlington Place, Mayfair, London W1S 2HX

Telephone: 020 3693 3435

Click here for their menu

St James

Kerridge's Bar & Grill

For his first London restaurant, renowned Michelin-starred chef Tom Kerridge along with Head Chef Nick Beardshaw has created a menu which harks back to classic dishes and traditional techniques, and plays on Tom's reputation for serving his take on the UK's most celebrated dishes. Expect a culinary experience to rival Tom's Michelin-starred establishments, housed in a stunning space reworked by The Studio.

Address: Whitehall Place, London SW1A 2BD

Telephone: 020 7321 3244

Click here for their menu

The Wolseley

The Wolseley hardly needs any introduction. Originally a car showroom for the once famous car, the restaurant opened its doors under the stewardship of Messrs Corbin and King, formerly the owners of The Ivy and Le Caprice. Hardly surprising then that it was an instant hit and has been drawing in the crowds ever since. Considered to be London's first Grand Café, The Wolseley is open all day from breakfast to post-theatre dinner becoming an iconic destination restaurant the world over.

Address: 160 Piccadilly, St James's, London, W1J 9EB

Telephone: 020 7499 6996

Click here for their menu

Chutney Mary

Established in 1990 in Chelsea's Worlds End, Chutney Mary moved to its current opulent location in 2015. The much awarded restaurant redefines quintessential Indian cuisine – combines authentic flavours, reinterprets traditional recipes, applies innovative technique and adds World class presentation. The impressive timeless interior fuses glamour and eclectic India.

Address: 73 St James's Street, St James's, London, SW1A 1PH

Telephone: 020 7629 6688

Click here for their menu

Chelsea

Hans' Bar & Grill

Located just a stone's throw from Chelsea's bustling Sloane Square, Hans' Bar & Grill offers an oasis of calm, nestled amongst the artisanal shops and food suppliers of picturesque Pavilion Road. With food firmly rooted in British produce, our café bar and all-day dining restaurant is the perfect place for healthy breakfasts and family brunches, late morning coffees, early evening cocktails and dinner.

Address: 11 Cadogan Gardens, Chelsea, London SW3 2RJ

Telephone: 020 7730 7000

Click here for their menu

The Ivy Chelsea Garden

The Ivy Chelsea Garden is a casual British restaurant serving an extensive all-day menu of food and cocktails. The restaurant, bar and café inside have an aura of approachable sophistication and familiar luxury; outside is an extensive garden, complete with a terrace and orangery. The Ivy chain continues to grow with recent openings on Marylebone High St. and Kensington High St.

Address: 197 King's Road, London SW3 5ED

Click here for their menu

Kutir

In the heart of Chelsea, this elegant townhouse restaurant serves Indian food that's full of heart, elegance and tradition. Inspired by India's vast and rich heritage and wildlife, Kutir offers diners the opportunity to enjoy traditional flavours in refined dishes alongside cocktails and a wine list full of rare finds.

Address: 10 Lincoln Street, Chelsea, London, SW3 2TS

Telephone: 020 7581 1144

Click here for their menu

Villa Mamas London

A fusion of Middle Eastern, Mediterranean and Persian cuisines. Experience the taste of organic, seasonal ingredients carefully paired to ignite your palate. A complete Halal restaurant, join us for lunch, dinner or come in to enjoy one of our specialty cocktails and mocktails or take a peek at our wine list. Should you fancy a cup of specialty herbal tea, a delicious latte or a cup of Turkish coffee, Villa Mamas London has got you covered. A taste of Bahrain in the heart of London!

Address: 25-27 Elystan Street, Chelsea, London, SW3 3NT

Telephone: 020 3034 0777

Click here for their menu

---

Soho

---

Andrew Edmunds

---

Established in 1985 Andrew Edmunds is considered to be one of the last bastions of 'Old Soho'. Situated in an 18th Century Townhouse, a modern European menu, hand written daily, is served by candlelight in a cosy, atmospheric setting. Next door Alan Edmunds Prints and Drawings, which has been operating since 1974, could inspire a gift to take home and treasure.

Address: 46 Lexington Street, Soho, London, W1F 0LP

Telephone: 020 7437 5708

Click here for their menu

Quo Vadis

---

A veritable Soho institution Quo Vadis was once the home of Karl Marx and a former brothel. The restaurant was first established in 1927 and today is run by three brothers and chef Jeremy Lee, serving modern British seasonal and regional fare. A speciality of the house is the smoked eel sandwich. Next door, Barrafin, serving modern Spanish Tapas is under the same stewardship.

Address: 26-29 Dean Street, Soho, London, W1D 3LL

Telephone: 020 7437 9585

Click here for their menu

The Palomar

---

This Israeli eatery punches well above its weight, delivering vibrant flavours and the warmest of welcomes – the day's menu even lists who is on duty in the kitchen and out front. Watch chefs from Jerusalem's celebrated restaurant, Machneyuda, working their magic in the no-bookings 'kitchen bar' or cosy up in the intimate wood-panelled dining area. Friendly staff encourage you to experiment with the sharing menu, which blends non-kosher Levantine cooking with modern influences from Spain, Italy and North Africa.

Address: 34 Rupert Street, London, W1D 6DN

Telephone: 020 7439 8777

Click here for their menu

Covent Garden

Sushisamba Covent Garden

Located at the famed Opera Terrace atop the historic Grade II-listed Market Building, this striking space is a vibrant new addition to the area. Crowned by an Eric Parry-designed glass roof, the restaurant runs along the entire east side of the market making for beautiful rooftop views across the piazza. Bold in design, SUSHISAMBA Covent Garden offers a host of inviting dining and drinking experiences: from the bar with its 'living ceiling'; the exposed kitchen and high energy sushi bar to the terrace overlooking the square below and the private dining room with its own entrance and terrace.

Address: 35 The Market, London WC2E 8RF

Telephone: 020 3053 0000

Click here for their menu

Cora Pearl

Cora Pearl is the second restaurant from the team behind Kitty Fisher's in Mayfair. Named after the infamous 19th Century courtesan, Cora Pearl serves delicious food and drink in a historic Covent Garden Townhouse.

Address: 30 Henrietta Street, London WC2E 8NA

Telephone: 020 7324 7722

Click here for their menu

Petersham Nurseries Covent Garden

Covent Garden brings nature and elegance to the heart of Covent Garden with an unparalleled lifestyle destination, capturing the unique spirit and rare beauty of its original home in Richmond.

Address: 27 King Street, London WC2E 8JB

Telephone: 020 7305 7676

Click here for their menu

Margot

Described as 'An instant classic' upon its opening by one highly regarded restaurant reviewer, Margot is an Italian restaurant situated in the heart of Covent Garden. The menu revolves around classic Italian cuisine with a focus on quality, seasonal ingredients and draws inspiration from Italy's diverse regions. Set up by two former employees of the esteemed 'Scott's' and drawing praise from many of the fiercest critics, Margot is a restaurant not to be missed.

Address: 45 Great Queen Street, London, WC2B 5AA

Telephone: 020 3409 4777

Click here for their menu

---

Fitzrovia

---

---

Circolo Popolare

---

Circolo Popolare's hearty Italian meals and no-nonsense servings have made it the place to be for Italian food-lovers across the city. Now, famous both for its incredible food and highly-Instagrammable interiors, not to mention a celeb hot spot. A large area of the restaurant is for walk ins and if you want to book, you must do so on their website as they release bookings at 7am, 30 days in advance of a date.

Address: 40-41 Rathbone Place, London W1T 1HX

Click here for their menu

---

Norma

---

Norma is a contemporary and bold restaurant originally the concept of celebrated chef and author Ben Tish. Inspired by the food and culture of Sicily with particular emphasis on the Moorish aspect of the island's cuisine. Norma embodies the celebrated old-school Italian hospitality and charm, taking inspiration from The Grand Café Culture found in Sicily. Set across 3 floors of a characterful Town House on Charlotte Street in London's Fitzrovia, the first 2 floors are dedicated to the restaurant with the top floor a private dining space.

Address: 8 Charlotte Street, London, W1T 2LS

Telephone: 020 3995 6224

Click here for their menu

---

Shoreditch

---

The Clove Club

The first of Isaac McHale's restaurants is set in the ornate and rather glamorous former Shoreditch Town Hall. Chefs perform centre stage in the smart, blue-tiled kitchen – sit here rather than in the adjacent bar so you don't miss out on the buzz. Set menus – for which you must prepay online – are the order of the day, and these are tweaked constantly, since this is a kitchen fanatical about sourcing only top-notch seasonal British produce. Dishes are understated in appearance but offer maximum flavour; there is originality, verve and flair but combinations are always expertly judged and complementary. Seafood dishes are a highlight; don't miss the deliciously juicy raw Orkney scallop, served with hazelnut, clementine and Périgord truffle.

Address: Shoreditch Town Hall, 380 Old St, London EC1V 9LT

Telephone: 020 7729 6496

Click here for their menu

Padella

Padella is the culmination of Tim and Jordan's long held dream to open a pasta bar serving fresh, hand rolled pasta with delicious sauces and fillings inspired by their trips to Italy.

Click here for their menu

Rooftop

Alto by San Carlo (On the rooftop of Selfridges)

Take the exclusive lift on ground and escape the city to discover a hidden Italy, high in the sky. Alto by San Carlo is a chic all day to evening Italian rooftop restaurant, alfresco terrace & bar with incredible views of the city sky scape. Alto by San Carlo is a rooftop restaurant with true wow factor. A retractable roof in the main restaurant allows the sun to shine any time of day and a delightful all-year-round alfresco dining terrace with bar, table service, lounge seating allows guests to lounge in splendour, in a hidden Italian garden, high in the sky. Breakfast with a view is a must - decadent choices include pancakes with fresh fruit and maple syrup with a range of breakfast bellini's to healthy power food bowls and smoothies, alongside an all day menu of superb Italian dishes made from the finest seasonal ingredients.

Address: Selfridges, Oxford Street, London W1A 1Ab, London W1A 1AB

Telephone: 020 7318 3287

Click here for their menu

Madera at Treehouse London

From Arizona to Los Angeles, Madera at Treehouse London is the celebrity hotspot that's finally touched down in London. Bringing their infamous modern Mexican menu, tequila cocktails and instagrammable interiors to Langham Place, Madera is one slinky rooftop bar and restaurant. Housed in the Treehouse Hotel, you be able to dine with 360-degree views out over the city, but you'll also find everything from tostadas and ceviche to tacos and churros. Top it all off with tequila-based cocktails.

Address: 24-28 Bloomsbury Way, London WC1A 2SL

Telephone: 020 3988 4273

Click here for their menu

Mercer Roof Terrace

In one sweep, the view from Mercer Roof Terrace takes in London's skyline, from the dome of St Paul's Cathedral to the glass tip of The Shard. Here, guests can dine alfresco or enjoy a drink at the bar above the city lights. Inside, the atmosphere is warm and convivial, with floor-to-ceiling glass doors opening wide to bring the outdoors in.

Address: 19-20 Garlick Hill, London, EC4V 2AU

Telephone: 020 3908 8099

Click here for their menu

The Rooftop @ The Trafalgar Hotel, St James:

The Rooftop is the perfect spot to take in the city's finest view and enjoy alfresco drinking and dining against the backdrop of London's iconic skyline. With a heavy Asian influence, our tapas-style menu of small plates is perfect for sharing, whilst our mixologists have crafted a list of delightfully delicious signature cocktails served alongside breathtaking views.

Address: 7th Floor, 2 Spring Gardens, St. James's, London SW1A 2TS

Telephone: 020 7870 2904

Click here for their menu

Child-friendly

Brindisa Tapas

Perfect for little appetites, Brindisa Tapas offers a delightful array of small plates, making it ideal for children. Located at the bustling corner of Borough Market, this spot serves affordable, authentic Spanish dishes like ham croquetas, tortilla, and pan con tomate. End with cheese and churros for a sweet finish.

Address: 18-20 Borough Market, Southwark St, London SE1 9AG

Telephone: 020 7357 8880

Click here for their menu

Flesh & Buns

Teens will love the edgy vibe of this basement bao joint. Indulge in Korean chicken wings, sushi, and 'flesh' like crispy duck or BBQ beef short rib, perfect for stuffing into fluffy buns. Don't miss the toast-your-own-marshmallow s'mores for dessert.

Address: 41 Earlham St, London WC2H 9LX

Telephone: 020 3019 3492

Click here for their menu

Kintan

For a fun, interactive dining experience, head to Kintan for Japanese barbecue. Grill your own meats and veggies at the table, with sides like gyoza and apple dumplings. The happy hour discounts make it even better.

Address: 21 Great Castle St, London W1G 0HY

Telephone: 020 3890 1212

Click here for their menu

Where The Pancakes Are

WTPA offers artisanal pancakes in a cool, minimalist setting. Kids can customize their toppings, while adults enjoy gourmet creations like the sweet 'Hummingbird' or savoury 'Dutch Baby'.

Address: 7 Charlotte St, London W1T 1RG

Telephone: 020 3838 8820

Click here for their menu

Masala Zone

A top spot for Indian cuisine, offering brunch, lunch, and afternoon tea. Child-friendly, with halal and vegetarian options available.

Address: 224 Piccadilly, London W1J 9HP

Click here for their menu

The Mayfair Townhouse

Contact Us

THE MAYFAIR TOWNHOUSE

27-41 Half Moon Street, London, W1J 7BG

TEL: 020 8138 3400

reservations@themayfairtownhouse.com | concierge@themayfairtownhouse.com

WWW.THEMAYFAIRTOWNHOUSE.COM

ICONIC
LUXURY HOTELS